

Work Review

If you could sum up your work with one word right now, what would it be?

How do you feel about the year that you had in this moment?

Do you remember any of the dreams, desires, hopes and intentions you set at the start of the year?
Did they happen?

Work Review

How do you feel about them happening / not happening?

What surprised you this year?

When did you follow your intuition and created something incredible unexpectedly?

Who was there for you this year?

Work Review

Who were you there for this year?

How would you like to remember 2021?

What goals, intentions, dreams do you have for 2022? Dream big!

What is a word you can choose to represent those dreams and your intention?

WHAT'S NEXT...

Take a moment to write down what you took away from this review, what you want to dive deeper into and how you are going to do that.

Don't forget we have a community of like-minded people at your fingertips where you can share your experience, ask questions and connect.

LET'S CONNECT

Notes